

As to “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated,” a woman once said to Mr. Spurgeon, “I cannot understand why God should say that He hated Esau.” “That,” Spurgeon replied, “is not my difficulty, madam. My trouble is to understand how God could love Jacob!”

Matthew 14:22-26

22 And straightway Jesus constrained [anankazo - strongly urged] his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. 23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone. 24 But the ship was now in the midst of [mesos - middle of] the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary [enantios - against, or an opponent]. 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled [tarasso - agitate, all stirred up], saying, It is a spirit [phantasma - phantom]; and they cried out for fear.

Matthew 14:27-31

27 But straightway [eutheos - immediately] Jesus spoke unto them, saying, Be of good cheer [tharseo - take courage]; it is I [ego eimi - I am]; be not afraid [stop fearing]. 28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if [assuming for the sake of argument] it be you, bid [keleuo - command] me come unto [out to] you on the water. 29 And He said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. 30 But when he saw the wind boisterous [ischuros - outward display of strength], he was afraid; and beginning to sink [katapontizo - sink to the bottom], he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

Matthew 14:28-36

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. 33 Then [And] they that were in the ship came and worshipped [proskuneo - to fall down on your face to worship] him, saying, Of a truth you are the Son of God. 34 And when they were gone over [having gone over], they came into the land of Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased; 36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

Galilee in the Time of Jesus

Mark 6:50-52

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled [tarasso - agitate, all stirred up]. And immediately [eutheos - immediately] he talked with them, and said unto them, Be of good cheer [tharseo - take courage]: it is I [ego eimi - I am]; be not afraid [stop fearing]. 51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased [stopped]: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered [thaumazo - wonder full, filled with wonder]. 52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

Matthew 14:22-23

22 And straightway Jesus constrained [anankazo - strongly urged] his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. 23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

Acts 26:11

And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled [anagkais - contrained] them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad [exceeding maniac; maniacal] against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

Matthew 14:13

When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart [to be by himself]: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

John 6:15-17

15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone. 16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward [eis - into] Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

Luke 9:10

And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

Mark 6:45

And straightway [immediately] he constrained [anankazo - strongly urged] his disciples to get [embaino - embark] into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto [pros - facing] Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

Matthew 14:34

And when they were gone over [having gone over], they came into the land of Gennesaret.

John 6:15-17

15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone. 16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward [eis - into] Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

Mark 6:48

*And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary [enantios - against, or an opponent] unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he came unto them, walking upon the sea, and would [thelo - desired] have passed by [parerchomai - to pass by] them.*

Matthew 14:24-25

24 But the ship was now in the midst of [mesos - middle of] the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary [enantios - against, or an opponent]. 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

Mark 6:47-48

47 And when even [evening] was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. 48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary [enantios - against, or an opponent] unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he came unto them, walking upon the sea, and would [thelo - desired] have passed by [parerchomai - to pass by] them.

John 6:16-17

16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward [eis - into] Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

John 6:18-19

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. 19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs [furlong = about 1/8 mile = 3.75 miles], they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near unto the ship: and they were afraid.

Mark 6:48

*And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary [enantios - against, or an opponent] unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he came unto them, walking upon the sea, and would [thelo - desired] have passed by [parerchomai - to pass by] them.*

Matthew 14:26

And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled [tarasso - agitate, all stirred up], saying, It is a spirit [phantasma - phantom]; and they cried out for fear.

Mark 6:49-50a

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit [phantasma - phantom], and cried out: 50 For they all saw him, and were troubled [tarasso - agitate, all stirred up]. . . .

Matthew 14:27

But straightway [eutheos - immediately] Jesus spoke unto them, saying, Be of good cheer [tharseo - take courage]; it is I [ego eimi - I am]; be not afraid [stop fearing].

Mark 6:49-50a

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased [stopped]: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered [thaumazo - wonder full, filled with wonder]. 52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

Matthew 14:28

And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if [assuming for the sake of argument] it be you, bid [keleuo - command] me come unto [out to] you on the water.

Matthew 14:29

And He said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

Matthew 14:30

But when he saw the wind boisterous [ischuros - outward display of strength], he was afraid; and beginning to sink [katapontizo - sink to the bottom], he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

John 21:7-8

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved said unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea. 8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits [100 yards],) dragging the net with fishes.

Matthew 14:31

And immediately [eutheos - immediately] Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O you of little faith [little faith one], wherefore [why] did you doubt [distazo - to have two standings]?

Matthew 14:32-33

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. 33 Then [And] they that were in the ship came and worshipped [proskuneo - to fall down on your face to worship] him, saying, Of a truth you are the Son of God.

Mark 6:50-52

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled [tarasso - agitate, all stirred up]. And immediately [eutheos - immediately] he talked with them, and said unto them, Be of good cheer [tharseo - take courage]: it is I [ego eimi - I am]; be not afraid [stop fearing]. 51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased [stopped]: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered [thaumazo - wonder full, filled with wonder]. 52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

John 6:18-21

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. 19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs [furlong = about 1/8 mile = 3.75 miles], they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near unto the ship: and they were afraid. 20 But he said unto them, It is I [ego eimi - I am]; be not afraid [stop fearing]. 21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately [eutheos - immediately] the ship was at the land where they were went [were going].

Matthew 14:34-36

34 And when they were gone over [having gone over], they came into the land of Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased; 36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

Matthew 14:22-36

22 And straightway Jesus constrained [anankazo - strongly urged] his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. 23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone. 24 But the ship was now in the midst of [mesos - middle of] the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary [enantios - against, or an opponent]. 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled [tarasso - agitate, all stirred up], saying, It is a spirit [phantasma - phantom]; and they cried out for fear. 27 But straightway [eutheos - immediately] Jesus spoke unto them, saying, Be of good cheer [tharseo - take courage]; it is I [ego eimi - I am]; be not afraid [stop fearing]. 28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if [assuming for the sake of argument] it be you, bid [keleuo - command] me come unto [out to] you on the water. 29 And He said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. 30 But when he saw the wind boisterous [ischuros - outward display of strength], he was afraid; and beginning to sink [katapontizo - sink to the bottom], he cried, saying, Lord, save me. 31 And immediately [eutheos - immediately] Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O you of little faith [little faith one], wherefore [why] did you doubt [distazo - to have two standings]? 32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. 33 Then [And] they that were in the ship came and worshipped [proskuneo - to fall down on your face to worship] him, saying, Of a truth you are the Son of God. 34 And when they were gone over [having gone over], they came into the land of Gennesaret. 35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased; 36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.
